WORKSHOP NOVEMBER 4 - DECEMBER 16, 2010
Living a Passionate Life with an Open Heart
Sandra Webb and April Shaw are offering this interactive, compelling workshop to women who want to live their lives more fully. Join us on Thursday evenings. Join with other open hearted women to create a more loving, caring relationship with yourself (and a side bonus - a more open, loving, caring relationship with others in your life). The workshop will be from 6:30 - 8:30 on Thursday evenings from November 4th - December 16th. The workshop will end just in time to open your hearts for a more mindful, open hearted holiday season. The workshop is only open to a maximum of 6 women.

Click on the workshop flyer below for more information.

Creative Family Therapy Techniques

edited by Liana Lowenstein (2010 Champion Press)

Bringing together an array of highly creative contributors, this comprehensive resource provides a unique collection of assessment and treatment techniques. Contributors illustrate how play, art, drama, and other expressive activities can effectively engage families and help them resolve complex problems. Practitioners from divergent theoretical orientations, work settings, or client specializations will find a plethora of stimulating and useable clinical interventions in this book. Available at a special discount at www.lianalowenstein.com

Playground goes to China

Hannah Sun Reid, Donna Cuthbertson and I travelled to China in September 2010. It was an amazing trip. We visited three orphanages. We took along copies of the Canadian Association of Play Therapy Playground magazine to give away. Hannah, Donna and I are Play Therapists. We wanted to encourage the orphanage staff to look at adding Play Therapy to their programs for the children in the orphanage.

I will post the article that will appear in Playground once it is published.
